Summer Academy Registration

Bring a Little Art into Your Child's Summer With Shake the Bard's Summer Academy

If you have a student in the 4th through 8th grades and are looking for a fun and stimulating summer program, consider Shake the Bard's Summer Academy. Improve self-esteem, learn theatre skills, make social connections, while building a short play to be performed in conjunction with a full scale Shake the Bard summer production. Program coordinators David Hamilton and Linnea Conway have a combined 12 years experience working in local schools. Their experience spans all aspects of theatre production. Your child will learn the basics of script-building, acting, stage management, and theatre design while building powerful interpersonal communication and coping skills.

4 Week Program Runs From July 9th, 2007 to August 3rd, 2007

When: Classes run from 9am - 12pm Monday - Friday
